If ideal autumn weather, vast throngs of visitors and splendid transportation facilities, together with almost perfect arrangements on the grounds make any thing the first annual exhibition of the Virginia State Fair Association will be an absolute success.

The grounds that have been bought and sold for the purpose of the fair, situated on the left bank of the James river, about two miles from the city, are being put in perfect order. The fair will be held on the grounds which were formerly the site of the old fair, and the new fair will be held on the same grounds.

At the fair, horses, sheep, poultry, swine, cattle, and other live stock will be shown. The fair will be held on the grounds which were formerly the site of the old fair, and the new fair will be held on the same grounds.

The great West End amphitheatre, where the sixth annual exhibition of the Richmond Horse Show Association will begin to-morrow night, was the destination of thousands of Richmond people all day yesterday. All day the cars on the four lines reaching that point were crowded, and in the afternoon, despite an excellent service provided for the horses, the cars were crowded with people.

Practically all day continuous streams of men, women and children poured in from all parts of the city, and the amphitheatre was crowded with people. The cars were crowded with people, and the amphitheatre was crowded with people.

YERKES EXPLAINS NEW ALCOHOL LAW

Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Issues Regulations Under Act of Late Congress.

GREAT BENEFIT TO PEOPLE

Effort to Prevent Perpetration of Frauds Against Revenues of Government.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 7.—Mr. Yerkes, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, today issued the departmental regulations controlling the making of denatured alcohol, its handling and its use.

These regulations follow and render effective a law enacted by the Congress at its last session, and which provides for the withdrawal from bond, tax free, of denatured alcohol, when same is rendered unfit for beverage or liquid fuel, and is used for the manufacture of salable denatured materials, and for the use of the denatured alcohol in the arts and industries, and for fuel, light and power.

The law becomes effective January 1, 1907.

The regulations are in harmony with similar enactments adopted by nearly all foreign countries. Great Britain, in law legislated on this subject along the same lines as our own law and France, Germany, Austria and virtually all the continental powers now furnish their subjects alcohol free of tax for the uses above stated.

In discussing the new regulations today, Mr. Yerkes said:

"The prime subject to be attained by this type of legislation is to furnish, for purely domestic uses and also for what might be called industrial domestic purposes, light, heat and power, cheap alcohol, with the hope thereby that there will be a reduction of expenses in these departments."

"This denatured alcohol will be a competition with illuminating oils, gasoline and coal."

"It will also furnish to manufacturers a valuable fuel for their furnaces and engines."

CALL FOR RETRENCHMENT

Congress of Constitutional Democrats
Assembles at Helsinki—Betrothal Denied.

LONDON, October 7.—In spite of the official contradiction from St. Petersburg, which is supposed to be Minister Kokovtsov's confidential report on Russian finances, published in the Paris Temps, is generally credited as being, if not authentic, at least very near the mark. A deficit of seventy-five million dollars has to be faced with to preserve of a foreign loan.

War loans are in demand, and the government is now faced with the need of a political loan. It is in Russia, and must now face the revolution, and bankruptcy, with no other alternative than those which have been offered.

The Congress of the Constitutional Democrats assembled here this afternoon. They were present 111 delegates, representing thirty-three provinces and four territories. Prince Paul Alexandrovich was elected president, while M. Chernikov and Prince Shakhovskoy were made vice-presidents.

An impassioned speech was delivered by Ivan Petrunkevich, who advocated the purely domestic use of alcohol, and also for what might be called industrial domestic purposes, light, heat and power, cheap alcohol, with the hope thereby that there will be a reduction of expenses in these departments."

HAVANA, October 7.—Reports received here late to-night from Guines and Alcazar declare that disbanded rebels are riding about these towns and saving their machines in a threatening manner. General Funston will go to Guines to-morrow morning.

HAVANA, October 7.—The first landing of American soldiers in the present occupation of Cuba was accomplished today, with marvelous promptness, and to-night 200 men of the Fifth United States Infantry and 50 men of the Second Battalion of Engineers, are settled under canvas in Camp Columbia. The cruiser Brooklyn arrived here this afternoon with 80 men, who will be sent out to the camp early to-morrow. To-day General Frederick Funston established his headquarters at Marijano, convenient to his command.

Colonel L. W. T. Waller, commanding the marine force, has been ordered to report to General Funston, and the entire force of regulars and marines will be under Funston's command until the arrival here next Tuesday of General J. Franklin Bell, who will direct the distribution of the forces throughout the island.

Within an hour from the time that the transport Sumner came alongside the railroad wharf, the disembarking had been completed and the 300 men composing the second and third battalions of the fifth infantry, and the 50 men of the second battalion of engineers, were taken on freight cars to other parts of the island. The movement was so skillfully handled that the men prepared their meals and took their own baggage.

The men are in good condition, and are pleased with their camp and its pleasant surroundings.

The disembarking of former insurgents went on much better to-day. Reports from various provinces indicate that the trouble which was threatened yesterday will be avoided, although ex-rebels and volunteers in a few towns in Santa Clara province are still disinclined to be the first to disarm, and it is feared that American soldiers will be required to look up the demands of the disarmament commission. Havana, Santiago, Pinar del Rio, Matanzas, and Puerto Principe provinces are practically clear of rebels, and show no signs of trouble.

Taft Much Gratified.

Governor Taft, Assistant Secretary of State, and General Funston are gratified at the situation, and believe that the trouble will be avoided.

RACES CLASH IN ARKANSAS; NEGRO HANGED TO POLE

QUIET REIGNS IN MACON NOW

ARGENTA, ARK., October 7.—As a sequel to the killing of John Lindsay and the wounding of his son, Policeman Milton Lindsay, here last night, presumably by Garrett Colum and Charles Colum, negroes, H. Blackburn, a negro, was lynched to-night at 10 o'clock at the corner of Sixth and Main Streets.

The trouble originated on September 12th, when a white man named R. H. McDonald killed a negro musician named Wiley Shelby. Next day, at the request held at the Colums' undertaking store, a difficulty arose in which Robert Colum was killed and Deputy Constable 153, Lindsay and Garrett Colum were severely wounded.

Shot From Ambush.

Policeman Milton Lindsay, a brother of Ed Lindsay, and his father were walking past the Colum store when they were fired on from ambush. John Lindsay was killed, and his son severely wounded. When the police and citizens attempted to enter the store they were fired on. It is supposed Charles and Garrett Colum did the shooting. Later in the night, thinking the Colum brothers were still locked in the rear rooms of the store, the place was dynamited, but the negroes had escaped unseen in the darkness.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning, Will Har, Jr., a father, was halted on the street by unknown parties, whether black or white he could not tell in the darkness.

He was asked if he was black or white. On replying that he was white, he was told to go back and while leaving he was shot in the back. At 2 o'clock James Mahoney, a contractor, and Al Belding, a reporter of the Little Rock Gazette, while going to see Harding, discovered a house on fire. Mahoney fired his pistol in the air to give the alarm, and immediately the two men were fired on from four different quarters with shotguns. Mahoney was painfully shot in the hand, and Belding's clothes were set on fire.

Hanged to Telegraph Pole.

Today, at 10 o'clock, thirty-seven years old, a negro, who conducts a confectionery store in Argenta, was arrested on suspicion of being the man who fired on Mahoney and Belding. As a precaution, Mayor Platteau swore in fifteen police men, and the sheriff sent several extra deputies to assist the police.

Shortly before 10 o'clock to-night four masked men entered the police station from the rear and one covered the turner with a pistol while the others got his keys and quickly unlocked Blackburn's cell and took him out the back way.

Not a shot was fired and there was no disturbance, so that Policeman Pratt and two deputies, who were standing on the street, were away. They knew nothing of what was going on until they heard several shots fired at Main and Sixth Streets. Going there they found Blackburn already dead, hanged to a telegraph pole, while the crowd were apparently in no danger.

When first arrested Blackburn said he only arrived from Lake Village Saturday night after the shooting. There was positive evidence, however, that after the Lindsay were first fired on Blackburn fired on a negro house adjoining and fired at John Lindsay; also that later he delivered inflammatory speeches to crowds of negroes at several points.
